Chile's Central Valley is the very hub of the country's wine production. Extending southwards from the capital Santiago, between the Andes and the Coastal Range of mountains, it is the home of many of the first vineyards to have been planted by European vignerons.

W2 Cuvée Sainte Geneviève Blanc Vin de France

Light with an up-front nose of citrus fruit, tinged with a subtle leafy character. Crisp and dry on the palate, with plenty of refreshing acidic bite.

W3 Pinot Grigio (Italy)

£18.50

A fresh, fruity wine with lots of crunchy fruit. Crisp, citrusy acidity and a well-balanced finish. The ideal aperitif or partner to oriental food.

Marlborough (New Zealand)

W4 Brancott Estate
Sauvignon Blanc,

Cabernet Sauvignon is the most widely planted grape in Chile, and was among the first of the noble varieties to have been brought over from Europe in the mid-1800's. This example is made by one of the Central Valley's major wineries, based in Cachapoal.

W5 Chablis

Steely and minerally aromas with citrus fruits, limestone, slate and a crisp, fresh and vibrant palate of stony fruits, limestone, grapefruit and lemons, finishing on a racy and uplifting citrus kick.

W7 Valle Antigua Merlot (Chile)

£18.90

The Central Valley is a paradise for growing grapes with a Mediterranean climate and a large difference between daytime and night time temperatures allows the grapes to ripen slowly developing intense flavours and aromas. Soft, plummy and eminently drinkable this possesses harmonious fruit flavours and just a touch of oak flavour on the silky finish.

W8 La Baume Grande Olivette Malbec (France)

£17.50

The popularity of Malbec seems to be unstoppable and this wine from a family producer shows just how versatile and delicious a grape it is. Unlike some of its heavier Argentinean counterparts this Malbec is all about fresh red cherries, refreshing acidity and floral notes yet it still retains substance and depth of flavour.

W9 Chianti (Italy)

£19.90

Bright ruby red in colour, with density and persistent legs. Aromas of cherry and fresh red fruits mingle with spicy pepper notes. Lively and supple on the palate, with fine, rounded tannins.

(France)

£23.50

W10 Saint-Emilion

This is a rich, full bodied wine showing great concentration of flavour. With juicy black fruit on the nose and palate backed up by a smoky sandalwood character.

Rose Wines

W11 Vallee Des Pins Rose 2016 Coteaux d'Aix en Provence (France)

Glass

The wine is made by traditional 'assemblage', in which the constituent grape varieties are vinified separately, before being carefully blended to achieve the desired style. Pale and delicate in appearance, this rose offers remarkable depth of flavour and aroma. Strawberry, raspberry and white peach fruit combine with more exotic guava-like characters.

175ml £4.70

Sparkling Wine

W12 Bouvet Ladubay Saumur NV (France)

£24.90

Fruity aromas and florals on the nose. Fine and persistent bubbles. Honeysuckle, acacia and bruised apples on the palate. Very elegant.

W13 Prosecco
£18.90

Lightly aromatic and easy drinking sparkling wine.
